Introduction

The MEhr Clef Summer Jazz week is led by some of the most respected and accomplished tutors in the UK who have many years experience both as tutors and performers of international repute.

The course will be held at University of Chichester, College Lane, Chichester, West Sussex, PO19 6PE and is suitable for instrumentalists and vocalists of all levels.

Our Tutors

Ursula Malewski (Vocals) – Course Director

Lee Gibson (Vocals) – Senior Professor for Jazz, Guildhall School of Music, London

Kate Williams (Piano) – Pianist, Composer and Educator, Guildhall School of Music, London

Rick Simpson (Piano) - Award winning Jazz pianist, arranger, composer

Ed Rice (Piano) - Accompanist and Tutor, Guildhall School of Music & Drama, London

Mark Hodgson (Bass) – Professor for Jazz, Birmingham Conservatoire

Martin France (Drums) – Professor for Jazz, Royal Academy of Music, London

Alan Barnes (Sax) – Highly regarded Tutor and multi-award winning international Jazz Musician

Matt Sulzmann (Sax) - Innovative Jazz Musician, composer and arranger

Stan Sulzmann (Sax) - Fellow of Royal Academy and Birmingham Conservatoire - Guest Tutor

Norma Winstone (Vocals) - Guest Tutor, Masterclass

Team members are committed to jazz education of the highest standard and have first and foremost students' interests and their musical development at heart. A particular passion is jazz education for young musicians. The team is proud that MEhr Clef students who applied for undergraduate and postgraduate courses at renowned Music Schools, Academies and Conservatoires were all successful in gaining places.

The Venue

The Summer Course will be held at University of Chichester Bishop Otter campus. Tuition takes place in their Music Conservatoire with modern facilities, well-equipped practice rooms and an acoustically superb performance area, used for teaching and nightly Jazz Club. There are numerous soundproof practice rooms for lessons and rehearsals, as well as lecture and seminar rooms. The Chapel will be our venue for both tutor concert and final student concert.

Accommodation is in flats, with four single en-suite rooms in each flat. Linen and towels provided, common room and kitchen (not equipped) in each flat. Tea/coffee making facilities in each room.

Teaching/Performance

Sessions are held in teaching rooms, most with grand pianos provided by Steinway & Sons. Nightly sessions take place in our 'Jazz Club' which is open to the general public – a wonderful showcase for the day's work. The Tutor Concert on Friday night (free for students) and Student Concert on Saturday afternoon will be held in the Chapel.

The Course

Why attend a course

A residential course offers intensive learning in an environment with like-minded people. Students have the opportunity to form their own bands for nightly performances with post-tutorial time for rehearsals.

Aim of the course

To offer jazz immersion, further jazz knowledge, musical improvisation, performance skills and ensemble playing. To build an understanding between musicians and develop group concepts in their varying combinations.

Who should attend?

The course is suitable for all players, from improvers to advanced. A good basic command of the instrument is necessary. The course is not suitable for instrumental or vocal novices. If in doubt, contact info@mehrclef.com. Minimum age is 14 with no upper age limit. Chaperone provided for 14-16 year olds. Students under the age of 14 may be accepted in exceptional circumstances and a parent/guardian may be required to stay.

Instruments

All instruments are welcome including violin, banjo, tuba, cello, vibraphone, marimba, oboe, harp, accordion, harmonica and more, though specialist instrumental tuition may not necessarily be available.

Timetable

The course runs for 7 days (6 nights) from Sunday 20 August to Saturday 26 August.

Registration is on Sunday 20 August from 2.00pm. First session at 3.30pm. From Monday to Thursday there will be four teaching sessions daily, Friday three sessions and Saturday two morning sessions. Tutor Concert Friday night (entry free for students). Student Concert Saturday afternoon (family and friends welcome). Nightly public performances in the 'Jazz Club' from 8pm – 11.00pm.

Course Content

Subjects covered: harmony, rhythm, aural, improvisation, styles, tempo, feel, intros and endings, repertoire development, performance technique, theory, small band, accompanying skills, small band leading and jazz choir. Audition preparation and mock audition for students intending to apply to Music Schools, Academies and Conservatoires.

Teaching is of the highest standard and groups are small to ensure individual attention is given to all students. The course offers intensive learning in an environment with like-minded people.

What to bring

Instruments, notebook and, if available, Jazz Standards/Fake Book, charts/lead sheets in appropriate keys for nightly performances. Students may record teaching sessions for personal use. Neither MEhr Clef nor University of Chichester can be held responsible for the loss or damage of equipment and it is therefore advisable to have instruments and personal belongings insured independently.

Pianos, drum kits and bass amps are available in all teaching rooms. One double bass, vibraphone, marimba and concert harp can be provided though priority will be given to students from outside the UK.
